2:45 GODAN: Voices of current GODAN Secretariat Donors, Jaime Adams

Ms Adams will chair a panel with several GODAN donors who will share “why” their organization became a GODAN Secretariat donor, highlight any cooperative activities with the GODAN Secretariat, and discuss impacts/benefits of GODAN, and their vision of the future of GODAN.

3:15 Question and Answer

3:30 Afternoon Break

3:45 GODAN: Next Steps, moderated by Amir Dossal, Global Partnerships Forum

An interactive session with participants. The moderator will provide an overview of the upcoming official request for proposal (RFP) for both the GODAN Secretariat host and/or financial supporter during the transformation phase (2020-2022). Short interventions (no more than 1min) will be welcome from participants during this session. These interventions may include statements of intent to submit an official response to the RFP.

Voice vote: The work of the GODAN initiative is unfinished and continuation is critical contribution to enabling the identification of solutions to solve global hunger by 2030.

Voice vote: GODAN intends to enter transition phase in 2019.

Voice vote: GODAN intends to enter transformation phase from 2020-2022, assuming sufficient proposals are received for hosting and financing the GODAN Secretariat.

Voice vote: Meeting attendees should share the GODAN: The Road Ahead request for proposal (RFP) for the transformation phase for the GODAN Secretariat host and donors with their networks and may consider applications as applicable.

Voice vote: Meeting attendees support the primary objectives presented by Mr Laperriere for the transformation phase.

5:15 Review and finalize meeting statement, Andre Laperriere

Mr Laperriere will read the proposed meeting statement. A draft of the statement will be provided prior to the meeting. Throughout the day the statement will be adjusted as necessary.

6:00 Closing
